- The whole of the Current Balance on the Card Account together with any outstanding amount incurred by the use of the Card but not charged to the Card Account shall become due and payable to Samba on the termination of the Card Account by either Samba or the Card Member or on the death, incapacity, bankruptcy or insolvency of the Card Member or at Samba's written request or at Samba's discretion without any notice, if the Card Member is in breach of these Terms and Conditions.
- The Card Member and/or his estate, administrator, executor and/or guardian will be responsible to settle outstanding balances on the Card Account and shall keep Samba indemnified for all costs (including legal fees) and expenses incurred in recovering such outstanding balances.
